

HARVARD BATTERED IN THE WILLIAMS GAME

Weatherhead and Dana, Promising Ends, Put Out of Business by Accidents.

BOLSTERING UP DEFENSE

Coach Haughton Spends Much Time Instructing Men by Lecture on Blackboard.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 14.—Harvard's defense against Williams forward passes was so wretched Saturday that today's work in the stadium was almost entirely on this variety of defensive play. The first varsity and substitute lined up against each other, but the regular season game was postponed because of the weather. Coach Haughton began the work by keeping all his players at the blackboards in the locker building for more than an hour, his instructions, however, being mainly on defensive problems.

The Williams game has proved costly in that two promising ends were disabled. Weatherhead, who was just beginning to come along, fractured a cheekbone and will be unable to play for two weeks. Dana, who only a few days ago was brought up from the scrub team because of his inefficiency in handling forward passes, bruised his hip badly and very likely will not be able to do much hard work before Harvard plays Princeton.

Fulton is now all right, but Harvard has no other good end rush at hand who has had much experience. H. Frothingham was tried Saturday but met with little success, while Gibson, a back, was pressed into service as an emergency end. The regular season game was postponed because of the weather. Coach Haughton began the work by keeping all his players at the blackboards in the locker building for more than an hour, his instructions, however, being mainly on defensive problems.

Storer was in the lineup to-day and was not seriously hurt. Weatherhead and Dana were both out of the game. The regular season game was postponed because of the weather. Coach Haughton began the work by keeping all his players at the blackboards in the locker building for more than an hour, his instructions, however, being mainly on defensive problems.

N. Y. U. PLAYER RULED OUT.

Absence of Wheeler From Cornell Game Displeases Students.

The New York University football team returned from Ithaca Saturday night and held light practice on Sunday. The regular season game was postponed because of the weather. Coach Haughton began the work by keeping all his players at the blackboards in the locker building for more than an hour, his instructions, however, being mainly on defensive problems.

Capt. Vesley commented favorably on the work of the team against the Ithaca team and noted that the team had been in mid-season condition or had been fresh material of first string caliber to relieve the regulars in the final period, as Cornell had, victory for the local eleven would have been assured.

ADVANCED WORK FOR CORNELL

At Sharpe Apparently Satisfied With Team's Work in Last Game.

THIRUS, N. Y., Oct. 14.—The Cornell football team, which has been expected to be about ready to learn a few new plays and possibly get just a taste of advanced football, was indicated when the varsity squad was called to the army to-night and the regular season game was postponed because of the weather. Coach Haughton began the work by keeping all his players at the blackboards in the locker building for more than an hour, his instructions, however, being mainly on defensive problems.

NO SCRIMMAGE FOR ELIS.

Coaches Prepare for West Point Game With Signal Drill.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 14.—The Yale coaches changed their plans about having a scrimmage this afternoon and let the regular season game be postponed because of the weather. Coach Haughton began the work by keeping all his players at the blackboards in the locker building for more than an hour, his instructions, however, being mainly on defensive problems.

COACH HELPS WILLIAMS FRESHMEN.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., Oct. 14.—Coach Daly gave the members of the Williams varsity who played in the Harvard game a special drill on signal.

HARRIS' ENDS INJURED.

GENEVA, N. Y., Oct. 14.—Coach Reynolds, who has been expected to be about ready to learn a few new plays and possibly get just a taste of advanced football, was indicated when the varsity squad was called to the army to-night and the regular season game was postponed because of the weather. Coach Haughton began the work by keeping all his players at the blackboards in the locker building for more than an hour, his instructions, however, being mainly on defensive problems.

WARRNER'S INDIANS GHOULISH.

CARLETON, Pa., Oct. 14.—A ghastly bunch of aborigines came back to Carleton on Sunday after the Indians' victory over Scranton at football. The story of the overwhelming victory and the defeat of a year is summed up in the expression "Warrior's Indians." The regular season game was postponed because of the weather. Coach Haughton began the work by keeping all his players at the blackboards in the locker building for more than an hour, his instructions, however, being mainly on defensive problems.

PENN'S DAY STRENUOUS.

Pickarrell Helps Diagnose Trouble With Team—Mike Murphy Ill.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14.—The coaches had Penn's football men out for a long session today. None of them liked the defeat from the Schuylkill team on Saturday, so they decided that it was about time to get things going if they are going to go at all this year. Frank Pickarrell, the famous linebacker of a few years ago, was on hand and he took the forwards in charge. He made things lively for the squad and there was more enthusiasm in Franklin Field to-day than any other time this season.

Mercer, Harrington, Young and Dillon were excused from rehearsal to-day, but all the others were drilled hard. Individually and collectively, Rogers, who was a member of the squad two years ago, came out to-day to try for the team. He was put in at left tackle. Penn is very short of material on the right end, so there was some switching around of the material in efforts to find a stronger combination for the line. McCall was retained at right end, but the right end position was put in place of Journey at right tackle. Helman took Mercer's place and Craig was in for Harrington. This combination was the result of a few days' work. In order to try out men for the line Wilson, a second varsity back field player, was exercised at guard. Danny Hutchinson, who played in the back field two years ago, also was on the field and helped the back field coaches.

Mike Murphy, who has not been well since his return from the Olympic games, was drilled hard today. He is not seriously ill, but will be forced to remain away from his work with the footballers.

LETUP FOR TIGERS.

Tabby Walter Seems Booked for a Place on the Varsity.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 14.—Following the first workout which they received in Saturday's game the Tigers got quite a letup in their work today and Coach Cunningham kept him on the field only a little over an hour. The regular season game was postponed because of the weather. Coach Haughton began the work by keeping all his players at the blackboards in the locker building for more than an hour, his instructions, however, being mainly on defensive problems.

The coaches are well gratified at the showing made by Tabby Walter in his initial appearance on Saturday and there is now every reason to believe that he will land a permanent berth on the varsity. Walter, who played in the back field two years ago, also was on the field and helped the back field coaches.

NAVY NOT DISCOURAGED.

Defeat by Lehigh Only an Incident in Preparation for Army Game.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 14.—The defeat on Saturday was the first the Naval Academy has suffered since the team was organized. There is no discouragement at the Naval Academy over the loss of the game to Lehigh and practice went on this afternoon with the usual vigor and dash. The regular season game was postponed because of the weather. Coach Haughton began the work by keeping all his players at the blackboards in the locker building for more than an hour, his instructions, however, being mainly on defensive problems.

AMHERST CASUALTIES.

Three Men Injured, While Others Lose Watches and Money.

AMHERST, Mass., Oct. 14.—Coach Hobbs began preparing the Amherst team for the Harvard game by having them new today. The regular season game was postponed because of the weather. Coach Haughton began the work by keeping all his players at the blackboards in the locker building for more than an hour, his instructions, however, being mainly on defensive problems.

ARMY TO BAFFLE YALE.

West Pointers Depend on Hobbs to Worry the Big Blue Team.

WEST POINT, Oct. 14.—The Army team had only light practice this afternoon consisting mainly of signal drill and running. The regular season game was postponed because of the weather. Coach Haughton began the work by keeping all his players at the blackboards in the locker building for more than an hour, his instructions, however, being mainly on defensive problems.

SPLIT HEADS THE RULE AT LEXINGTON TROTS

Baden Has Narrow Squeak in Five Heat Race for the Castleton Cup.

ESTHER W. THE CONTENDER

Baldy McGregor Takes the Rich Champion Stallion Stake, in Which Driver Falls.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 14.—The card offered for to-day's racing at the Kentucky Jockey Club, which is the most interesting of the meeting, five heats were trotted to decide the winner of the Castleton cup, while in the last event five heats were paced, with two to the credit of Fiver Direct, two to Walter Cochato and one to Longworth B. when the race was postponed until to-morrow.

The first two heats in the Castleton cup went to Baden, winner of the Transylvania, but this fast colt broke in the next heat and lost to Esther W. This mare, who has been the favorite of the public, was a small phase of the gambling law and only a technically as to whether this man Shane was illegally detained.

"Justice Scudder's decision does not affect the attitude of the officials of this county," said Mr. Wipong, "and all attempts at bookmaking or gambling will result in arrest," said the District Attorney. "Justice Scudder's decision is in no sense sweeping or broad or a general condemnation of the law."

SHANE CASE OPINION FILED.

District Attorney Says, However, That End Is Not Yet.

MINNOLA, N. J., Oct. 14.—The decision of Justice Scudder of the Supreme Court in the case of Paul Shane, which is considered a victory for the advocates of horse racing, reached here this morning by mail and was placed on file in the office of the county clerk. It was made public in New York last night. The opinion orders the release from custody of Shane and holds that it is not a crime to bet on horse racing and the Legislature never made it a crime to do so, and the courts cannot read such intent into the law. The Legislature made it a crime to bet on horse racing and the Legislature never made it a crime to do so, and the courts cannot read such intent into the law.

The case arose out of the arrest of Paul Shane at the Belmont Terminal on June 10, 1911, on the charge of being a bookmaker. ERASMUS NOT HURT BY WEEK'S ENFORCED REST

Squad Resumes Practice With Ginger to Spare and Tackling Hard.

BRUSH STILL ON THE SHELF

Doctor Doesn't Know Whether Hurt Shoulder Will Allow Fullback to Play.

The Erasmus Hall football squad resumed practice yesterday after a lapse of a week on account of the Erasmus player. The work was snappy considering that the lads had been sitting soft for seven days. Coach Bull McCaffery has the lads advanced so now that they tackle, take off tacklers and break up interference better than any other team in Brooklyn. He gets out in uniform and shows them how to do it.

The Erasmus line is fast and heavy and seems as good as most of the others, but the backfield men, although very fast, are unusually light. No husky fellow has been found for the backfield position. Tommy Brush's doctor is undecided whether to let him play again this season. Tommy's shoulder was dislocated in practice about three weeks ago. If he is allowed to play he will just about double the strength of the backfield line. He is the heaviest as well as the speediest man of all the backs. He also is a good punter and the only drop kicker the school has.

Little Jimmie Olsen is easily the best fullback on the Erasmus team just now. Although he weighs only 145 pounds his great speed and really wonderful knack of slipping through the line place him well above par. While running at full speed he can dodge a tackler and even when break away.

Commercial Elections One Sided.

The general organization elections at Commercial were much more one sided than expected. Walsh, who now is president, beat Grosvenor, his over 500 votes against Fisher, now vice-president, beat Ludwig by 350, and Harris, now secretary, beat Kook by 440. Mr. Brace was appointed treasurer.

Manual Sets Date for Meet.

Manual Training expects to have its yearly track meet on the Friday or Saturday of next week. The meet will be held on the track at the Manual Training school. The regular season game was postponed because of the weather. Coach Haughton began the work by keeping all his players at the blackboards in the locker building for more than an hour, his instructions, however, being mainly on defensive problems.
